- g) exercise of legal claims – this involves the processing of personal data for the purposes of exercising legal claims of the Joint Controllers in court, out-of-court, arbitration, administrative, execution, bankruptcy and restructuring proceedings

- h) fraud risk management, reporting of antisocial activities.

5. Legal basis of processing of personal data

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is the entering into and performance of the Agreement (Article 6(1)(b) of the Regulation).

The legal basis is also the compliance with legal obligations of the Joint Controllers (Article 6(1)(c) of the Regulation), e.g. according to regulations for protection against money laundering, accounting and tax regulations or according to labour regulations. The disclosure of personal data is a legal obligation of the Data Subject.

Where the legal basis of processing of personal data is the consent of the Data Subject (Article 6(1)(a) of the Regulation), the Joint Controllers shall notify the Data Subject of the need for its consent and instruct it accordingly.

The Joint Controllers may process personal data even without the consent of the Data Subject if this is necessary for the purpose of pursuing their legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) of the Regulation). However, processing shall be admissible only if such interests are not overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the Data Subject that require protection of personal data.

The Joint Controllers have determined that the following interests shall be considered to be their legitimate interests:

- provision of services as part of the object
- disclosure of information in direct marketing

- protection of property
- ensuring the data and information systems security
- monitoring and recording of business communication
- comprehensive protection and increased client comfort
- transfer of personal data within a group of undertakings
- identification and contact details of representatives of legal entities and other natural persons obtained from publicly available sources
- legal administration, checks of proper and timely fulfilment of legal obligations, exercise of legal claims and recovery of receivables
- prevention of damage, fraud and other breaches of legal obligations
- damage and fraud risk management, perpetrator detection.

Special categories of personal data may be subject to processing, in particular if the Joint Controllers fulfil their obligations under the anti-money laundering regulations.

6. Categories of recipients of personal data

The personal data of the Data Subjects are primarily accessible to the employees of the Joint Controllers in connection with the performance of their work duties when it is necessary to handle personal data. The access by the employees of the Joint Controllers to personal data shall be limited to the extent necessary for the performance of those tasks.

The personal data of the Data Subjects are further made available to so-called “processors” involved in the processing of personal data under personal data processing agreements pursuant to Article 28(3) of the Regulation entered into with auditorea k.s., which was authorised to enter into such agreements on behalf of the Joint Controllers in the territory of Slovak Republic.

The categories of recipients to whom personal data may be disclosed, if necessary for the above purposes, are:

- Auditorea Business Group Companies
- administrative bodies, courts, public institutions, executors, investigative and prosecuting bodies
- IT and cloud services providers
- legal advice providers
- insurance services providers
- telecommunication services providers
- cooperation partners of the Joint Controllers
- in the area of payroll accounting of the client:
- creditors of an employee, as well as other persons involved in the enforcement of a right potentially associated with it, even in the case of voluntary assignments of salary for due receivables
- corporate and legal interest representation bodies
- insurance companies within the existing group or individual insurance, as well as insurance companies insuring employees
- banks entrusted with the payment to employees or third parties
- company doctors and pension insurance companies
- co-insured persons.

The Joint Controllers shall update the details of the recipients on a regular basis.

7. Transfer of personal data

Personal data will be processed and stored in the Slovak Republic or in the Republic of Austria.

Please note that the personal data obtained may be subject to a cross-border transfer and processing within the European Union.

The Joint Controllers do not intend to transfer the personal data of the Data Subject to a third country outside the European Union or to international organisations. Such a transfer would be possible only under the conditions set out in the Regulation.

8. Transfer of personal data within a group of undertakings

The Joint Controllers are part of a group of undertakings pursuant to Article 4(19) of the Regulation, the central body being the Austrian company Auditorea Steuerberatungsgesellschaft mbH, with its registered office at Seidlgasse 41/9, 1030 Vienna, Republic of Austria.

The Joint Controllers therefore have a legitimate interest in transferring personal data within the group of undertakings for internal administrative purposes, including the processing of clients' or employees' personal data.

9. Term of retention of personal data

The personal data of the Data Subject shall be retained by the Joint Controllers for as long as is necessary in view of the purpose for which personal data are processed.

The personal data of the Data Subject processed on the basis of an entering-into of an agreement will be retained for the term and duration of performance of the contractual relationship, unless special legal regulations provide for a longer retention period.

In the event of the initiation of judicial or administrative proceedings and the making of legal claims by the Data Subjects or third parties, the Joint Controllers shall retain the personal data of the Data Subject necessary as evidence, until the final conclusion of the legal dispute.

The processing of personal data in the case of granting of a consent is only possible during the period for which the consent was granted or until the withdrawal of the consent.

Immediately after the expiry of the retention period of personal data, but no later than the end of the calendar quarter following the expiry of the retention period, the Joint Controllers shall provide for the erasure of personal data.

10. Profiling

The personal data of the Data Subject may also be processed in an automated manner for the purpose of evaluating certain aspects of the Data Subject (profiling), e.g. to display ads or business offers.

Currently, the Joint Controllers do not perform any profiling.

11. Technical and organisational measures to protect personal data

The Joint Controllers use the latest information technology for the secure retention and transfer of data.

In particular, during their activities, they use up-to-date software that meets the requirements of Privacy by Design and Privacy by Default, standard security measures and regularly evaluate the expertise of their staff who have access to the personal data of the Data Subjects.

12. Rights of the Data Subject

Each Data Subject shall have the following rights:

- right to request access to personal data
- right to rectification of personal data
- right to erasure of personal data
- right to restriction of processing of personal data
- right to portability of his/her personal data
- right to object to the processing of personal data and to a decision based solely on automated processing (profiling)
- right to withdraw his/her consent (if consent is the legal basis of processing)
- right to submit a complaint to the supervisory authority, i.e. the Office of Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic

The above rights of the Data Subject are further specified in Articles 15 to 21 of the Regulation. The Data Subject shall exercise these rights in accordance with the Regulation and other applicable laws and regulations.

The Data Subject may exercise his/her rights against the Joint Controllers by means of a written request, by electronic means or orally. The information may be disclosed provided that the Data Subject has established his/her identity.

13. Withdrawal of consent

The Data Subject may withdraw his/her consent at any time; the lawfulness of processing of his/her personal data on the basis of the consent granted shall remain preserved until the moment of withdrawal of the consent.

The consent with the storage of personal data may be withdrawn by the Data Subject at any time by sending a notification to the address of the contact point. In case of doubt as to the identity of the Data Subject, proof of identity of the Data Subject or other means of authentication of the withdrawal of consent is required.

14. The right to information and the right to object

The Data Subject will be provided at any time with free information on what personal data has been obtained about the Data Subject and for what purpose.

The controller contacted by the Data Subject (or the contact point on behalf of the controller) may charge a fee for the disclosure of information only in the cases provided for by the Regulation.

In order to obtain information, the Data Subject must identify himself/herself as the person to whom the information is to be disclosed or prove that he/she is the person entitled to receive the information concerning a third party.

The Data Subject may object to the use of his/her personal data at any time by sending a message to the e-mail address of the contact point: office@auditorea.com.

Blocking and erasure of the personal data of the Data Subject shall be governed by the conditions laid down by law. Blocking the personal data of the Data Subject will in particular ensure that no further information and messages are sent to the Data Subject from the Joint Controllers.

The Joint Controllers wish to remind that the erasure of personal data is only possible after the expiry of the legal or contractual deadlines for their storage.

The legal regulations concerning the processing of personal data are:

1. REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation)
2. Act No. 18/2018 Coll. on the Protection of Personal Data, Amending and Supplementing Certain Acts
